

Co-funded by the Intelligent Energy Europe
Programme of the European Union

Reliable Disclosure Systems for Europe – RE-DISS II Project Final Conference

“Making Guarantees of Origin and Electricity Disclosure in Europe more reliable”

Date: 23rd September 2015, 12:00 – 16:45

Venue: Flemish Government in Bruges (VAC Brugge), Jacob Van Maerlantgebouw
Koning Albert I laan 1-2, 8200 Bruges, Belgium

Agenda:

12:00	Welcome lunch
12:45	The coordination of GO and disclosure systems in the European policy context	Philip Good, European Commission DG ENER
13:00	How does RE-DISS support the implementation of reliable disclosure systems? Overview over recommendations and guidance for Competent Bodies provided by RE-DISS II, including <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Best Practice Recommendations and Starter Kit for Basic Implementers• Disclosure Guidelines• Criteria for recognition of GO imports Questions and answers	Dominik Seebach, Öko-Institut
13:45	The evolution of the residual mix as key tool for avoiding double counting Latest methodology as recommendation for future application and evolution of residual mix key figures Questions and answers	Markus Klimscheffskij, Grexel; Hanne Raadal, Ostfold Forskning
14:30	Coffee Break

14:45	Country Monitoring Overview over the implementation of GO and disclosure systems in European countries, and over the progress which has been made in the last years Assessment of country policies in the light of recognition criteria Questions and answers	Diane Lescot, Observ'ER; Angela Tschernutter, E-Control
15:30	The need for Future Governance Which tasks of RE-DISS II have to be maintained also after the end of the project, and how can we support this? Questions and answers	Christof Timpe, Öko-Institut
15:45	The role of AIB for future coordination Summary by AIB Questions and answers	Dirk van Evercooren, AIB
16:00	Discussion, wrap-up and outlook
16:45	End of the workshop

For more information on the RE-DISS II project, please check www.reliable-disclosure.org